SENATOR RUSSELL IS ONE CANDIDATE WHO IS GOOD COOK

Claims He is "Most Eligible" Man in Senate For Presidency

KEEN HUMOR SENSE

Friends Say He is A More Accomplished History Student Than Truman

Any way you look at it, Sen. Richard Russell (D) of Georgia is an eligible man. Among the leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination next July, he is apt to remark there is not a "more eligible man in the senate for the presidency" than himself. He's less talkative about being an eligible bachelor. This is the fourth article in a series of personal close-ups of presidential candidates.

ARTICLE FOUR
By Inez Robb
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

There are times when Sen. Richard B. Russell (D) Ga., thinks it might be better to marry than to burn constantly over all the old gags and weary jokes eternally tossed his way because he is a bachelor.

He has been especially vulnerable during this year of grace, which is Leap as well as election.

"Are you really the most eligible man in the senate?" a pretty dinner partner asked Russell, the im-

Pastor Says That Moral Degeneracy Has Set In

"The failure of many parents to train their children spiritually has resulted in much delinquency in this generation". So stated Pastor Lehman Strauss at the Parent-Teacher meeting held for the parents and teachers of the beginner department of Calvary Baptist Sunday School on Monday evening.

"The picture of father and mother and children going together to church and occupying the family pew is seldom seen today. The Bible no longer occupies the central place in the home. As a very evident result, moral degeneracy has set into our civilization".

Pastor Strauss continued to point out that the Bibical foundation for the family is: (1) a personal knowledge of God; and (2) training the children in his way of righteousness and saluation.

Following the message demonstrations of the methods used in instructing kindergarten children in Sunday School were given. This included a question-answer clinic. The program was planned and executed by the 12 teachers and officers of the beginner department.

School Playgrounds To Open Here Mon., July 7

Starting several years ago in providing supervised recreation for younger children, the board of directors of the Bristol Borough School District will again sponsor this program on four of the school playgrounds for a period of six weeks.

Commencing Monday, July 7, the play yards will be open at the Bath street school, Wood street school, Jefferson avenue school and the high school for five days each week until August 15.

Each playground will be supervised by one woman and one man, each experienced and interested in the activities of children either as teachers or students at teachers' colleges. Supervised games and craft activities will be part of the daily program along with competitive inter-playground contests.

A number of instructors from last year will again return. However, there are a few openings for persons with at least two years' post high school education.

HONOR OTHER GIRLS

The annual banquet given by the Mothers' Association to the girl athletes of the Bristol High School was held last night in the school cafeteria with over 100 in attendance, including 39 of the athletes, 29 of whom took their mothers as guests.

Highlight of the evening was the awarding of the Mothers' Association Key award to Margaret Adams for participation in two varsity sports for two years. Miss Adams was the only senior who qualified for the award which was presented by Mrs. Stanley Keers, president of the Association.

For three years service on the cheerleading squad, Peggy Baumann, a senior, was presented with a sterling silver megaphone inscribed with a red "B".

Speaker for the occasion was Miss Elizabeth Williams, of Southampton. Miss Williams is a graduate of George School, Newtown, and University of Pennsylvania, Phila., and since September, 1951, has been teaching and coaching at Upper Darby.

During the summer of 1950, Miss Williams toured Europe and Africa as a member of the United States hockey team. She showed color pictures and talked of her travels. This summer Miss Williams plans to go to Helsinki, Finland, to see the Olympics, and also visit Scotland and England.

SABOTAGING THE PORT BILL

Ever since the end of the War, this country has been suffering from what might well be termed "spoiled brat" government.

Rash and intemperate off-the-cuff statements, unprintable letters on White House stationery sent through the mails, captious and unlawful courses of action willfully decided upon, arrogant disregard of orderly processes, sale of favors and auction of patronage, rule by cronies and protection of the crooks—all this has been going on so long, now, that it will seem strange indeed when the time eventually comes that we return to law, order and commonsense.

Perhaps the oddest of all the amazing development is the story of what has happened to the Delaware River Port Authority Program worked out laboriously by the governors and legislatures of the three states of Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

This plan is on the rocks. It has been stymied, apparently bottled up in a Congressional committee where only dynamite can dislodge it.

By whom? That's the laugh.

By a Budget Bureau which hasn't balanced a budget in twenty years, but which is pulling a dog-in-the-manger act to dictate to the three "sovereign" states just how they shall go about working out their Port Authority plans—and refusing, incidentally, to let them do it the way the Port of New York is functioning.

Only the sheerest technicality put the Budget Bureau in the picture at all. Because of several factors, Congressional approval was necessary to the Port Authority compact before it could be made operative, and, as is customary, the Bill made the circuit of various Federal departments for their comments; the Budget Bureau was included, for the obvious purpose of checking on matters which might affect the Federal budget, of which there are none in the Bill.

Without the slightest semblance of reason or justification the Budget Bureau staged a sit-down strike on the Bill, and refused to approve it without the inclusion of several amendments, none of which have even a faint connection with the Federal Budget.

The amendments would forever cripple the Port Authority Program. They would prevent the Philadelphia area from doing

SOLARIUM, 4 ROOMS, PHILCO "MEMORIAL"

Arrangements Completed For Third Floor Section of Proposed Hospital

JOINT GIFT, $51,505.00

After considerable delay, the public relations committee of The Lower Bucks County Hospital announces that satisfactory arrangements have been completed with Philco Corp. and Philco employees for a memorial in the new hospital suitable to their subscription.

During the fund raising campaign, Philco Corp. pledged a sum of $30,000 to be combined with the Croydon plant employees pledged subscriptions of $21,505 for a joint memorial. At that time the choice of memorial was under the jurisdiction of the professional fund raisers who had already allocated to someone else the units desired by Philco and employees. A temporary choice was then selected pending receipt by the public relations committee of the final approved drawings from the architects.

These drawings have now been

SUGGEST CHANGES IN ZONING PLAN

Township Zoning Commission Holds Second and Final Hearing

DRAFT TENTATIVE ONE

EDGELY, May 15—"The zoning ordinance can and ought to be amended from time to time . . . as the township changes. This can be done on initiative of the zoning commission or through petition of the people."

So Charles P. Cella, Jr., of the Government Consulting Service, University of Pennsylvania, Phila., informed the nearly 75 residents of Bristol township who attended the second hearing conducted on the proposed zoning ordinance for Bristol township, conducted by the zoning commission. Final hearing for this commission took place in Edgely fire station. Further hearings will be conducted by the Bristol township commissioners, with due notification given residents.

The presiding officer, Walter G. Rittler, chairman of the zoning commission, recognized a number of women and men residents of

BRISTOL TOWNSHIP AND TULLYTOWN BOROUGH CREATE AUTHORITY; ACTION REVEALED AT TOWNSHIP COMMISSION MEETING LAST EVENING; LEASE WATER AND SEWER PIPES

Levitt & Sons to Receive Rental for Sewer and Water Plants for 40 Years, Unless Bought by the Authority; Commissioners Are Questioned from The Floor About the Contract.

EDGELY, May 15 — The battle between the Bristol Township Authority and Levitt and Sons Inc. for the rights to sewage and water control is finally over. A compromise settled the issue.

The announcement came at the regular meeting of the Bristol Township Commissioners, last night, as a result of questions stemming from the reading of the minutes of a special meeting held May 13th. An agreement with Levitt and Sons was entered into at that time.

As things now stand, a Lower Bucks County Municipal Authority has been formed with Bristol Township and Tullytown Borough as members. They each have three residents serving on the Authority. This Authority will purchase all water and sewage pipe lines up to the edge of the disposal plant and to the edge of the pumping station and well field, or everything under ground. The sewage plant and water station will remain the property of Levitt and Sons and will be leased to the Authority.

Oscar Booz, commissioner, explained these facts as a result of questions from the floor at the regular meeting, last night. Mrs. Oscar Booz asked the Commissioners if any contract has been entered into with Levitt and Sons concerning sewage and water. Her husband then related the terms of what he said was the contract. The facts as related by Booz's revelations were briefly these:

The rental for the leasing of the sewer and water plants from Levitt have been set at $25,000 for the year April 1, 1952 to March 31, 1953. The second year rental will be $75,000 and the third year $200,000. Every year thereafter for a period of 40 years, unless sold to the Authority before that time, the rental will be an annual charge of $300,000. It was explained that the Authority has been granted the right of first refusal in purchasing the plants. If the Authority feels the price is too high, at any time they can appeal to the right of eminent domain. It was further explained that if the sewage and water rentals that residents pay the Authority do not meet the costs of the Authority, then Levitt and Sons do not receive their rental for the sewer and water plants.

The Authority is set up to serve the Levittown franchise and it has the right to add an additional 500 homes to the systems. To add more than 500 requires the approval of Levitt and Sons. It was announced that The Bristol Township Authority has not been dissolved, as the Lower Bucks County Municipal Authority is not expected to be able to serve the entire township. The rentals that consumers will have to pay were not announced, but the Authority is to be charged $175 per house for line connections.

The Authority will pay for the pipe lines through a bond issue and it was announced that Levitt and Sons have purchased $150,000 worth of bonds and that this money will be used to get the Authority in motion.

Chosen to represent the Authority were the bond attorneys of Morgan, Lewis and Bockius, Leo M. Dolphin Investment Co., and the engineering firm of Glace and Glace.

Oscar Booz stated that there were points won and points lost in the settlement. He added, "If we had not done something soon, everything would have been given to the Levittown Authority. (Tullytown).

Many questions were asked by the taxpayers in attendance and the most important ones were unable to be answered by the Commissioners. The question that evoked "I don't knows" from the Com-

Takes the Topcoat of Pres't Judge by Mistake

DOYLESTOWN, May 15 — The top-coat of President Judge Hiram H. Keller, taken by mistake from a local inn, has been returned following a trip to Ohio.

Says Judge Keller: "I always knew there were some honest people in the world".

On Monday John Cornish, of Meriden, Conn., stopped at Doylestown Inn and inquired of the women at the desk if she knew Hiram H. Keller. "That is our President Judge" was the reply.

"I would take a Judge's coat which is like hitting a policeman's car when you are driving," replied the quick-witted visitor.

President Judge Keller was eating in the restaurant when the Connecticut man and his wife stopped in to have something to eat.

Upon leaving, the Connecticut tourist grabbed a coat and threw it on the backseat of his car. They were enroute to Ohio and when they checked in at a hotel that night they discovered they had the wrong coat.

Cornish, who doesn't believe in "finders keepers" has not been as lucky as Judge Keller because his coat, which he left when he picked up His Honor's by mistake, has not been returned.

BANKERS MEET HERE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Bucks County Group Tours Levittown and Holds Dinner-Meeting

C. JOHNSON, SPEAKER

Bucks County bankers yesterday saw with their own eyes booming Lower Bucks County. Those from other sections of the county marveled as they saw and heard of plans for the area. The visitors attending a dinner-meeting of the Bucks County Bankers Association saw how the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County and The Bristol Trust Company have expanded their facilities and they were told of plans of the two local banking houses to open branches to care for the population increase. All of this brought wonderment to those from less populated sections of the county. The picture of fine high-grade farm lands furnishing sites for thousands of houses in Bristol and in Falls townships, and in Tullytown borough was revealed A visit was paid to Levittown.

In the evening the 27th annual meeting and dinner were held in American Legion hall, where officers were elected, reports of committees presented and an eloquent address given by the Hon. Calvin Dean Johnson, former member of Congress from Illinois.

The address of the former congressman was one which sparkled

COURT RESTRAINS LEVITTOWN PICKETS

Temporary Order Issued; Hearing To Be Held Monday

FILE BILL IN EQUITY

DOYLESTOWN, May 15—In the Court of Common Pleas, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, late yesterday afternoon, issued a temporary restraining order preventing mass picketing at Levittown.

The plaintiffs are Levitt and Sons, Inc., and the North Shore Supply Corp. They alleged in the bill of equity that mass picketing was taking place, which resulted in violence and property damage, and further alleged there is no dispute among employees, that there is no strike on but that the Union is endeavoring to intimidate non-union workers and that there are assaults, disturbances and violence, which consists of stoning automobiles, cutting tires, throwing glass in the roadways and blocking entrances to Levittown.

The plaintiff presented a long list of affidavits made by various parties, charged the defendant with mass picketing, inflicting violence, damaging property, threatening personal employees, using force and stoning cars.

Isaac J. VanArtsdalen, county solicitor, associated with three attorney for the plaintiff, said police could no longer cope with the situation.

The defendants are: laborers, local union No. 57; journeyman plumbers and gas fitters, local union No. 690; United Association

RAISING GOOD DRIVERS

It's a trite saying that young drivers are "a big expense to put on the road in a car." In the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx of New York City, where casualty insurance rates are the highest in the nation, some insurance companies say they are going broke along with parents.

Four companies now refuse to write policies for those areas, where the present cost of the basic policy—bodily injury and property damage—is $115. When there is a driver under 25 the rate jumps to $210. And the underwriters are talking about a 20 per cent increase in New York on June 1. Varying increases may be ordered in other parts of the country.

What are the reasons for this shocking burden on all who own cars? Inflation. The high cost of settling claims. High cost of auto parts. The log-jams of cars on outgrown roads. And of course the bad record of young drivers compared with those of mature years.

Most drivers start driving young, and all drivers of the future will have been young once, and youth is the time for education—so what can be more vital than a focusing on young people for possible relief? Driver-training in school may provide the basic instruction.

But for the youthful to be careful drivers in fact is something that rests on the responsibility they feel, the good manners they practice wherever they go and whatever they do—the way they were raised.

Home is still the place for safety on the road to find its surest, most essential support.

A PROPHET WITH HONOR

One of the very great men of American agriculture obtained his start in a simple way. More than 50 years ago a boy named Hugh H. Bennett was growing up on his father's farm beside the Peedee River in North Carolina. After heavy rains water of the Peedee was colored chocolate brown by topsoil washed off the farms of the Piedmont region. Young Bennett didn't like that. To him it seemed a horrible waste.

The other day, at 71, Dr. Bennett retired as head of the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. His life has been devoted to an ideal—the preservation of the soil and water upon which the people and the nation depend.

Years ago Dr. Bennett estimated that improper use of the soil was resulting in the loss of 500,000 acres of cropland annually. Great acreages are still being lost. But the pendulum has swung. Never again, it is safe to prophesy, will Americans idly watch the good earth mined and eroded to desert-like sterility.

Dr. Hugh Bennett was often discouraged but he never gave up. Millions of American acres now are under good soil management largely because he has lived and worked.

When selecting the memorial units, along with the employees, Daumant Kasma, plant manager, again confirmed the company's pledged amount and stated, "We at Philco are well aware that within the last decade and a half the use of hospitals has doubled. This remarkable trend corresponds to the discovery of new techniques of diagnosis and treatment, calling for complex apparatus and skilled personnel. It is reflected in the increased coverage of employee groups by hospital insurance plans. Hospitals are becoming larger and more costly to build. We know that the new load placed upon hospitals in recent years represents in a measure the demands of the insured and hospital - conscious employees for care. We are therefore very pleased to join with our employees and all others in affirmative participation to bring about the erection of a community hospital within our immediate area. We should also like at this time to recognize those few, without whose efforts at the time so necessary in the beginning, we would not now be able to look forward to the early erection of this worthy project."

Hospital President James E. Harris expressed appreciation for the organization as follows: "Philco's contribution to our hospital fund is of special interest to me personally, because I am a member of another local service group that annually receives support from this concern. The job of president has been made easier as has our entire movement because of such splendid support as this from Philco and their employees."

with bits of humor, interspersed with sound logic and 100 percent Americanism. The speaker had an eloquent flow of language and a way of presenting his topic "Land Where Our Fathers Died" which held his audience spellbound.

C. Donald Moyer, treasurer of The Bristol Trust Company which was the host bank and retiring president of the Association, delivered the president's address. Mr. Moyer called attention to the development of Lower Bucks County and how the banks in the section are being and will be called upon to render greatly increased services. He said that not only will the banks of the section prosper by the influx of the industrial activity but that the banks in the center and upper reaches of the county will also prosper. He urged that all banks be prepared to render the services which will be requested.

The invocation was by the Rev. Rowland L. Carlson, pastor of the Harriman Methodist Church.

Harold E. Hanson, chairman of the nominating committee, placed before the meeting the nominations for officers to be elected for the ensuing year. The nominees were without opposition and they were elected as follows:

President of Association — T. Wells Knipe, cashier, 1st National, Perkasie; vice president — Robert B. Hance, Jr., Sec'y-Treas., Newtown Title and Trust Co., Newtown; Secretary — Elmer C. Cates, Trust Officer, Doylestown Trust Company, Doylestown; Treasurer — R. W. Krueger, Cashier, Merchants National, Quakertown.

Executive Committee: C. Donald Moyer, Bristol Trust; Claude C. Wolfinger, 1st National of Riegelsville; Herman L. Margeum, Jr., The Morrisville Bank; Joseph C. Maschke, The Sellersville National Bank; Brinton H. Hogeland, 1st National Bank and Trust Co., Newtown.

The nominating committee consisted of Harold E. Hanson, chairman, Bristol Trust Co.; Brinton H. Hogeland, 1st Nat'l, Newtown; David L. Weamer, Quakertown Trust.

Mr. Johnson, the main speaker of the evening, in his opening remark extended congratulations to the bankers upon being located in the area into which the steel industry has moved. He said that America had always been the land of opportunity where it had been the rule that sweat was the cure for all economic ills and where Free Enterprise had reigned. "Every man is supposed to prosper according to his own talents and I have had confidence in America," he said. He stated that America has six percent of the world's population, seven percent of the world's area and owns 45 percent of the world's wealth. He urged that the citizens of America become aroused and awaken to a realization that if America is to be preserved that they must do their duty as citizens and vote. He gave the figures that at the last election out of 94 million people eligible to vote, only 48 million had cast ballots. "Our American heritage is rapidly slipping away from us," he cautioned.

"You may ask 'what good will my one vote do?'" His answer to this was to read a list of presidents chosen by one electoral vote. He said that with a strong president and a weak Congress, America could soon slip into a dictatorship. He gave the anticipated deficit this year as being 15 billion when speaking of the reckless spending and extravagance of the Government.

Mr. Johnson gave it as his opinion that we are not going to have a war. His reason given was that through the system of Free Enterprise that America can out-produce the world, by calling upon the industrial giants created by private capital. He asid that Lenin had said that the way to destroy Democracy was to make Democracy spend itself into bankruptcy. He spoke in favor of military aid for Europe, but advocated that the guns, the tanks, and planes and the ammunition be made in this country. "One hundred and twenty-seven billion was the figure he gave as having been spent by America for foreign aid since 1940.

Communism he compared to cancer and described how it eats from within until it destroys. The first step toward Communism said the speaker is the welfare state, then Socialism as in England and then Communism.

"We must take an active interest in government and protect the American heritage." He referred to the pinks on government payrolls getting from $8,000 to $10,000 annually while our boys are dying in Korea.

Those at the head table were: Joseph R. Grundy, chairman of the board, Farmers National Bank of Bucks County; Clyde J. Waterman, president of The Bristol Trust Company; L. Merle Campbell, state secretary of banking; William J. Begley, Esq., trust officer, Bristol Trust Company; Christian H. Brandt, state deputy secretary of banking; W. J. McCuen, state chief bank examiner; Edward Aff, assistant cashier Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia; DeHaven Develin, president Montgomery County Bankers Association; Rev. Roland L. Carlson, pastor of Harriman Methodist church; John P. Mohr, president Lehigh County Bankers Association; Harris Vennema, editor, Pennsylvania Banker; Elmer C. Cates, secretary Bucks County Banker's Association; T. Wells Knipe, who was elected president of the Association.

COMMUNICATION

Editor, Courier:

On April 30, 1952, I was requested to help the Bensalem Tax Payers Association "to get support from the people in the Upper District for the changing of Bensalem Township from second class to first class. I know anything first class has much more appeal than something second class and I also know the tax payers can get a big bill handed to them if the two party system in politics don't go along with this move hand-in-hand. The most effective way I can explain is this. Why does anyone group of political office holders in the majority want to dispense the tax payers money without some representation from the minority party. I believe the reason is obvious. I must take a position in this matter, therefore I gave the following statement April 30, 1952:

"To the tax payers Association Bensalem Township, Bucks County, Pa., I will go all the way for "First Class Township" If it is for all the people. Therefore make public the names of the five commissioners that are going to be recommended to the court for appointment for the first year until elected by the people and then the people will know just where they stand, otherwise I will work against such a plan that is a "pig in a poke".

Bristol Township and Tullytown Borough Create Authority

missioners was: "Why didn't the agreement specify that the sewage and water plants would be sold to the Authority at the end of five years or when the last house is built in Levittown?"

Alfred Smith, a member of the Bristol Township School Authority, stated "I think Levitt expects to locate in Lower Bucks County and will not want to sell the facilities."

Mrs. Booz stated, "Bristol Township is taking what it can get, not what it is entitled to."

Commissioner Fred Hibbs said, "We had some very good legal talent working for us and they all told us that this was the best that we could get."

According to legal notices appearing elsewhere in the Courier today, the Board of Commissioners of Bristol Township had a special meeting May 13th, and enacted an ordinance signifying the intention of the municipal authorities of that township to organize an authority under the Municipal Authorities act of 1945, jointly with the Borough of Tullytown.

Tullytown Borough Council had a special meeting on the same date and enacted an ordinance signifying the intention of the municipal authorities of that borough to organize an authority under the Municipal Authorities act of 1945, jointly with the township of Bristol.

The authority is to be known as the Lower Bucks County Joint Municipal Authority.

The board of authority is to consist of six members, three of whom shall be citizens of each district. The term of each member is to commence on the date of his appointment: one expiring Jan. 1, 1954; one on Jan. 1 ,1955; one Jan. 1, 1956; one Jan. 1, 1957 and two on Jan. 1, 1958.

The names of those appointed and their terms are as follows: William Leigh, Tullytown, one year; C. Donald Moyer, Bristol Township, two years; William Johnston, Sr., Croydon, 3 years; Florence L. Conca; Tullytown, four years; Arthur Seyfert, Bristol Township, five years; Charles Lucisano, Tullytown, five years.

According to the ordinance sets forth that the first projects to be undertaken are the acquiring, holding, constructing, improving, maintaining and operating, owning, leasing, either in the capacity of lessor or lessee, of sewers, sewer systems or parts thereof, sewage treatment works, including works for treatment and disposal of industrial waste, water works, water supply works and water distribution systems in the Township of Bristol and the Borough of Tullytown or parts thereof and for such other territory as it may be authorized to serve.

Bloomers were introduced at Lowell, Mass., in 1851.

Bristol township, representatives of manufacturing firms, and attorneys for builders contemplating construction in the township. Other members of the zoning commission present were Mrs. Reba Goebig and Harry Smith; and representing the Government Consulting Service, in addition to Mr. Cella, was M. Webb.

The session was two hours in length, and a number of those interested in specific changes asked for the floor on several occasions.

At the outset, Cella reminded that the draft is a tentative one, and that "suggestions and changes will be given favorable consideration. This is your ordinance, and we want every one to be satisfied."

Representatives of various firms presented their suggested changes in writing, some augmenting such with verbal information. The maps and the drafts of the proposed ordinance were frequently consulted by the gathering as specific sections of the township and their designated listings came up for consideration.

Dr. S. C. Kelton, representing Rohm & Haas Company, emphasized to the commission and the other township residents that his firm "is strongly in favor of township planning and zoning." He added: "We feel that your commission has done an excellent job in preparing this preliminary draft, and we are in favor of its adoption subject to the minor changes which will undoubtedly be submitted to you by other property owners in the territory, and subject also to a few minor changes which we wish to propose for your consideration."

Among the changes suggested by Rohm & Haas Co., through Dr. Kelton were: Change in classification from M-1 to M-2 of small tract adjacent to the Penna. Railroad, and west of where the road from Bristol - Burlington bridge meets Route 13; change in requirement for industrial establishments from one parking space for each four employees to one space for each four employees employed in any one shift; possible inclusion in Section 301 covering R-1 districts that land in such districts may be used for a "lake or reservoir for water supply, or non-commercial recreation purposes;" amendment of height regulations applicable to M-1 and M-2 areas so as to have the height limitation correlated with the distance of the building or structure from the street or property line on the land on which it may be erected; change in Article II., Sec. 901, Pg. 6, so that clause would read "Fertilizer, when manufactured from animal or vegetable refuse or materials" (the present phrase prohibits manufacture of fertilizer when manufactured from organic materials); suggestion that the commission consider broadening provisions of Pg. 2 of Sec. 1000 regarding extension of non-conforming use of building or land.

A number of residents from Maryland avenue section of Croydon had as their spokesman Mrs. Evelyn Lawton. Mrs. Lawton pointed out that "Most are new homes on Maryland avenue, and while we are in an R-3 zone we don't want manufacturing plants in our back yards." She referred to plan for M-1 district a short distance back of Maryland avenue. She asked that the R-3 district be extended for protection of the residents, and submitted a petition with 124 signatures attached. The desire was that the R-3 district be extended over Cedar avenue and to River road and Rohm & Haas Co. tract. Mr. Cella reminded that "some districts are highly tentative. We wanted to find out what the people desire."

Howard Loeffler, College Park, called attention to the fact that that area which has been and is of a residential nature, is tentatively listed for manufacturing under M-2. "I am in a bad position—between two fires." He asked that an application which he presented be placed on file. Another township man who finds himself "in the middle of M-2 district," Minot avenue, below River road, was John Tullibach. He told the board: "I work in Philadelphia all day. I have lived in Croydon 25 years, and bought a house 13 months ago. Now I find the area classed as industrial. I am very much opposed to M-2 classification. Let's keep it residential. Take the industries out to the farms. The farmers are willing to sell."

Representing Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co., John P. Fullam, Esq., informed that that firm (in areas listed for M-1, M-2 and R-3) "is making a detailed study of the proposed ordinance, and asks leave to submit recommendations later. It will be in your hands within a few days."

When query was made by some in regard to advance announcement of hearings by the township commissioners, Mr. Cella stated: "All who have anything at stake should come to the third meeting. It's good just to keep with the thing. But remember, we've got to think in terms of the ultimate lot of the township."

H. L. Thomas represented the Sporrr Corporation. He stated that firm has option on property on Green Lane, contemplating construction of two-story, row-type houses (one and two-family type), and will shortly make detailed presentation to the commission. Cella questioned Thomas regarding the plans for sewage disposal and water supply, and was informed that those things were being given consideration. Cella also reminded that row houses "are not allowed anywhere in the township." It was pointed out that such are also subject to the county sub-division regulations.

One spokesman asked that State road, also Cedar avenue, be continued as commercial areas, "thus allowing businesses on the two thoroughfares and bringing more money to Croydon."

I. W. Cross, Newportville, informed the board that with the planned Penna. Turnpike extension going through that area a good part of his property is being taken for such. His query was as to whether he could expand in any other manner, and was informed that he may purchase contiguous land.

Request was made by Alfred Vandegrift that the triangular piece of ground at Green Lane and Farragut avenue be changed from R-2 to commercial.

There were a number of questions regarding the "spotting" of manufacturing districts along the Neshaminy Creek and Delaware river. Cella enlightened by telling how the thought was "in terms of a belt of heavy industrial areas." . . . "Plans are in tentative form for a manufacturing strip where land is not yet developed." He assured further study of these cases.

Kenneth Anderson presented to the commission a list of detailed recommendations regarding signs.

"I know how difficult it is to please all the people all of the time," commented James Harris when he took the floor. He called attention to sections along State road marked on the map by three "C's" for commercial, with a break of one R-3 district in the area. "We should have had zoning 20 years ago, and this particular problem would not be with us," he stated. "I believe the future will find State road commercial as the various places are converted." This forecast was, he said, for the next 10 or 15 years, "because State road is an artery." He added, however, that parking spaces are necessary before the "commercial" part comes to pass. "We are trying to correct a haphazard situation."

A number from the College Park area expressed feeling that that district should be made residential instead of M-2. Mrs. Ernest Leah told of the recent clearing of a beach area in that district, and other improvements.

Another point brought out by Cella was that "We have tried to arrange for commercial convenience centers, as well as for major ones."

When the subject of township taxes was mentioned briefly, Mr. Harris reminded: "We must have a broad view. Industry is necessary to bring the tax rate down. That is only good, common business sense. The tax rate would go up by reason of having all dwellings and no industries. It is a blessing we have industrial plants paying 20 per cent of our taxes."

When the question arose regarding deed restrictions, Mr. Cella informed that such deeds must be complied with, and that where there is a difference in requirements (deed or ordinance) "the tougher requirement applies."

When the matter of land donated by Rohm & Haas Co. to Bristol township school district was brought up, Dr. Kelton informed that when and if such acreage ceases to be used for school or recreational purposes the larger portion of the tract is to revert to the company.

HITS PLENTIFUL AS AUTO BOYS WINS GAME

Hits were plentiful last evening as the Auto Boys nine won its first game of the Bristol Softball League beating the Minnesota Mining contingent, 8-6, on Conti's field.

The winners collected 11 hits off Amy Lewis while the scotch-tape makers nicked Lou Palumbo for nine safe blows. Of the 20 hits, eight were for extra bases, including triples by "Chuck" Kline and Joe Frank.

Auto Boys had a 5-2 lead going into the last half of the fifth but the 3M's team scored twice in the fifth and again in the sixth to knot the count.

BENSALEM WINS OVER NESHAMINY BY SCORE OF 4 TO 3

LANGHORNE, May 15 — A home run by Joe Mikelaitis played a prominent part in Bensalem Township's 4-3 eight inning victory over Neshaminy High yesterday afternoon on Playwicki field.

It was the fifth straight win for the Owls and sixth of the Lower Bucks County League, lifting them into first place. It was also Bob Whitfield's fifth mound triumph against one defeat.

The blow by Mikelaitis came in the fourth canto. Russ Struble had walked and Crowthers hit safely to center. Then came Mikelaitis' blow against the fence in right.

The four-bagger gave Bensalem a 3-2 lead at the time but Neshaminy tied it in the last part of the seventh with a run on some daring base-running by Nick Grudza. Grudza walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and then deadlocked the count with a steal of home.

Joe LaPenta who relieved Tony Peale in the eighth was the losing pitcher but a victim of fate. He got Harvey Crowthers on a fly and then struck out Mikelaitis. He also fanned Whitfield but the ball was trapped by the catcher. Russ Struble, coaching at first, yelled for Whitfield to run which he did and made it safely as most of the Neshaminy team was off the field. Umpire Henry Morgan called Whitfield safe and play resumed. Whitfield stole second. Al Wachtendorf's throw went to center and took a bounce over the centerfielder's head, permitting Whitfield to cross with what was the winning run.

Whitfield allowed Neshaminy three hits while Bensalem made four off Peale. It did not get a hit off LaPenta, the losing twirler.

Harvey Crowthers played a nice defensive game for the winners.

CAPELLA TOO MUCH FOR KAISER TEAM

Slow tantalizing pitches by Tony Cappella proved too much for the Kaiser Metal team last evening as Franklin A. C. broke into the win column of the Bristol Softball League with a 4-1 win over the automobile workers.

Cappella permitted the Kaiser team but four scattered hits, two of these a double by C. Chichiletti and single by Frank Barbetta, provided the losers with their lone tally in the fifth.

Included in the eight hits made by the Franklin team was the second home run in as many nights by Dezzy DeLise. DeLise also made another hit to give him four out of six in the two games played.

Franklin copped the game by scoring three runs in the sixth by bunching four of their hits off Charlie Uhland. One was away when DeLise singled off Uhland's glove. Centonze was the second out. After DeLise stole second, Toby Oriola lined out a hit to left to score him. Oriola went to second on the throw-in. Fred Fields hit safely to center, scoring Oriola. Paul Paolillo scored Fields with a two-bagger to center.

George School

NEWTOWN, May 15 — Parents and other guests from California, Connecticut, Louisiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia, totalling 163, looked over George School, Saturday, took box lunches with their children, shared in a panel discussion on school social life, and watched varsity teams in five sports score four wins and one loss on spring parents day.

On the athletic fields, Coach Jamison's girls kept alive their undefeated streak, scoring their third 1952 win on the tennis courts, 4-2, over Westtown School. The lacrosse players of Coach Eleanor Hess earned a 4-3 win over Westtown. Finally in girls' sports, Westtown defeated the archery team of Coach Bea Tempest. In baseball, Coach Edward Thode's team won its sixth game in 10 starts as pitcher "Bill" Bieber of Douglassville held Admiral Farragut Academy to two hits while fanning eight as his mates, sparked by a home run from the bat of Pete New, Santa Fe, N. M., collected seven runs to win 7-2. In Pennsburg the netmen of Coach Jim Seezers had to contend with rain, but not before winning seven of the nine scheduled matches for victory over Perkiomen.

In other George School developments this week it was announced that, from the many poster designs submitted in a contest being run by Friends General Conference, the design of Ann Talbot, Newtown, had been selected for first honors.

The art work of three other George School students was chosen for exhibition at the Tyler School of Fine Arts of Temple University (Phila.) show held from April 26 to May 10, along with the prize work of other Philadelphia area students. Those from George School whose work was exhibited in the Tyler "Young America Creates" show were: Edward Abbott, Jr., Woodbury, N. J.; Philip Grausman, New York, N. Y.; and Gail Johnson, Morrisville.

Neshaminy District

LANGHORNE, May 15—The baccalaureate service for the members of the graduating class of the Neshaminy high school will be held in Friends Meeting House on June 1st at 7.30 p. m.

The speaker will be James Walker, former headmaster, Westtown School.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Delhaas High School

On May 16, under sponsorship of student council with "Betty" Jane Taylor as chairman, Delhaas high school will hold its first award day in its open-air auditorium. The awards include a trophy, presented by 10-H-9 to the tenth grade softball champs; letters, awarded after a student has earned 30 points in activities; and to those pupils participating in school activities and not receiving a letter, certificates.

The festivities will start at 1.20 with 10th graders watching a softball game between 10-H-9 and 10-H-10. At 2.50, Thomas Jenkins will conduct presentations before the whole student body.

DIPHTHERIA DOWN

LONDON, (INS) — Diphtheria — the most deadly child-killer known to Britain — is nearing extinction. Official figures released by the Ministry of Health show that 32 people died in 1951 compared with 49 in 1950, while cases reported were 699 against 959.

NEW WRINKLE

WILMINGTON, Del., — (INS) — A "new wrinkle" for women who have trouble moistening clothes for ironing is a cellulose sponge developed by DuPont Company. One of these artifical sponges, the firm says, gives quicker results because it holds 20 times its own weight in water. These sponges also, it was claimed, can be pressed against the fabric to be ironed, or can be used to sprinkle clothes

GAS SAVERS

TOLEDO, O.—(INS) — The male motorist could jingle more nickels, dimes, and quarters in his pocket if he drove like the much-maligned "woman driver." Women drivers get more miles out of a gallon of gasoline because they drive slower than men do, according to Dean A. Walters, technical service director of Willys-Overland Motors, Inc.

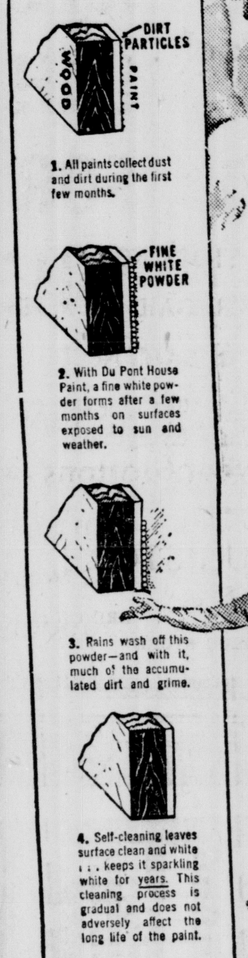
MAGNIFIED CROSS-SECTION SHOWS SELF-CLEANING PROCESS



1. All paints collect dust and dirt during the first few months.
2. With Du Pont House Paint, a fine white powder forms after a few months on surfaces exposed to sun and weather.
3. Rains wash off this powder—and with it, much of the accumulated dirt and grime.
4. Self-cleaning leaves surface clean and white . . . keeps it sparkling white for years. This cleaning process is gradual and does not adversely affect the long life of the paint.

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT
cleans itself!

Your house stays clean and bright when it's painted with Du Pont House Paint. Made of specially blended pigments and oils, this unique paint actually sheds dirt and dust with every heavy rain! Normally, the "Self-cleaning" starts within a few months. However, excessive soot or heavy shade, or stains from metal surfaces such as copper screening, may interfere with or delay this process. Ask your Du Pont dealer or painter to tell you how the "Self-cleaning" process works in your area.

Keep your home looking beautiful years longer . . . insist on "Self-cleaning" Du Pont House Paint. It's available in Outside White or popular tints. And to insure maximum performance of the finish coat on bare wood or badly weathered paint, start with a coat of Du Pont House Paint Primer.

peccable southern gentleman, a few months ago.

"Yes, ma'am," said Russell politely, "there's not a more eligible man in the senate for the presidency."

Yet the Senator would certainly make some woman a good husband: He is a first-rate cook, who specializes in Southern cuisine. His baking powder biscuits are tone poems and his southern fried chicken dreamy.

The Senator has never been afraid of a controversial issue, even to the point of challenging the senate dining room's most famous dish, its bean soup, a favorite of gourmets the world around.

"I think my bean soup is better," is his uncompromising verdict.

The Georgia Senator occupies a house-keeping apartment in Washington's Mayflower hotel. He rises at 7 a.m. and plugs in the coffee pot with one hand while reaching for his safety razor with the other.

Breakfast is no scratch affair. Russell is a grits-and-gravy man, fortified by Georgia cured ham. Like as not he'll cook his own dinner in the evening, and often invites a few friends in to share his specialty, broiled steaks.

He absorbed his cooking techniques from his gifted mother, Mrs. Ina Russell of Winder, Ga., with whom he lives when he is not in Washington or campaigning for the presidency. Russell is the third of thirteen children of Mrs. Russell and the late Richard Russell, chief justice of the Georgia Supreme Court.

Judge Russell lived long enough to administer the oath of office to his son when Sen. Russell was elected governor of Georgia at the age of 34, the youngest governor in the state's history.

When he was elected to the U. S. Senate three years later in 1933, he was the youngest man in that citadel of elder statesmen. At that time, a large banquet was given in honor of Russell by Georgia Democrats. When Russell was introduced, the assembly rose with the exception of an elderly woman.

"Don't you believe in rising for this distinguished son of Georgia?" hissed the indignant person seated next to her.

"No, I don't," was the first reply. "I got up too much for him when he was a baby. I'm his mother."

Socially and personally, Sen. Russell is one of the best liked men in Washington with Republicans and Democrats alike. Both Republicans and Democrats praised him for his fairness a year ago when he acted as presiding officer at one of the most delicate and difficult hearings in the capital, that occasioned by the recall of Gen. MacArthur.

He has a delightful sense of humor and even his colleague and rival, Sen. Estes Kefauver, could laugh when Russell, discussing Kefauver's talented red-headed wife Nancy, said "Kefauver's chief accomplishment is that he outmarried himself!"

In a capital that often resembles a sea of infuriated men, Russell is noted as an instinctive politician who is never bitter, frustrated or angry.

If he felt frustrated when Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, the original chosen presidential instrument of President Truman, said he would not seek the Democratic presidential nomination, the Georgia Senator concealed his feelings. For his intimates say that Sen. Russell up to that point had high hope he would be chosen as Stevenson's running mate.

"This was his real ambition," says one of Russell's close friends. "Now he is running on his own. If he doesn't make the grade at the national convention, he will at least be in a strong bargaining position."

Russell is conscientious in his attendance at the Senate and conscientious in his study of all major legislation. He is at his office at 8 a.m. regularly when in Washington. By that hour, he has breakfasted and read the newspapers and is ready to tackle his mail.

He dictates so rapidly for the next two hours that from three to five stenographers take dictation in succession. He spends his day between committee meetings and the Senate floor. He is chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee and chairman of the Senate Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee. Russell is an expert in both fields.

His favorite pastime is the reading of history. His friends are certain that he is an even more accomplished student of history than President Truman. Detective fiction, in which so many busy men find relaxation, bores him.

Sen. Russell enjoys a good game of bridge, but does not often find time to play. He goes to a semi-occasional movie. He likes music. He plays neither golf nor canasta.

Russell is one of the most effective speakers in the Senate. He is a tireless campaigner and an accomplished hand-shaker.

"And if necessary, he can kiss babies, if the babies don't object," one of his staff says.

It was the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, then governor of New York, who told youthful Russell in 1931 that "the governor of Georgia has the prerogative of kissing every pretty girl he sees."

When Russell looked doubtful, Roosevelt told him the edict had been issued by Gen. John B. Gordon when he was the governor of Georgia, "and it's high time you know it."

After World War II, Russell, with a straight face, proposed that Great Britain be admitted to the United States and that Winston Churchill and the late King George VI, be allowed to run for the Senate.

Russell has traveled all over the world on Senate business. During the early days of World War II, on a tour of war areas, he dined in China with Generalissimo and Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek. He looked nervously at the chopsticks, but relaxed when Mme. Chiang, who attended preparatory school in Georgia, served him southern fried chicken.

ROYAL COCKTAILS

LONDON, (INS) — The Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II is not due until 1953 but Britain's bartenders already are dreaming up the "perfect" Coronation Cocktail. Bill Tarling, president of the United Kingdom Bartenders Guild, said there will be "hundreds of different Coronation Cocktails" to tickle the palates of all who visit London to see the splendid pageantry of a Coronation year.

A major manufacturer introduces a one-unit "electrical" sink — automatic dishwasher under porcelain enameled sink and drainboard with internal plumbing. Sink is 48 inches wide, 25 inches deep and 36 inches high, with swing-type faucet assembly. Dishwasher opens from front, loads from top.

PEN FORCE

ALBUQUERQUE, (INS) — New Mexico University history student William Fortune's essay on "The Use of Force in Modern Society" so pleased Magistrate Findley Morrow that the judge suspended all but $10 of a $50 fine he levied against Fortune for being involved in a fight.

Sabotaging The Port Bill

what the New York area has been doing with much success—that is, use revenue-producing projects such as toll bridges to finance non-revenue-producing improvements to the Port.

Now, it may be accepted as a truism that almost any other president who ever occupied the White House would rap his Budget Bureau's fingers smartly for trying to dictate policies concerning the states and the Congress, policies having no conceivable relationship with the Budget Department's own business—which business, we may say, has been flagrantly mishandled for two decades.

But not President Truman. He has shown no interest in helping solve the impasse, and apparently is quite willing for the Port Authority program, fruit of many years hard work in three states, to be sabotaged by his fiscal assistants.

To the friends of the Port Authority we can offer little comfort in this distressing situation, and in fact, can offer nothing but a word of advice.

That advice is this, to pitch in at once and help solve ninety per cent of the troubles of this type which are plaguing the nation more and more with the passage of time.

There is just one way the demoralization and destructive confusion can be wiped out, and that is by replacing the New Deal and its discredited chieftain with someone who is sufficiently courageous and able to run this country the way it should be run, who has the experience and the technical know-how which are called for, and who is dedicated to constitutionalism and common-sense.

The outstanding American who qualifies for that description is Senator Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, the nation's well-known "Mr. Republican."

FIRST BATHROOM

NEW YORK, — (INS) — The first known clay tile bathroom was built around 3000 B. C. for King Urinmar, Babylonian monarch. Archeologists who discovered the room measuring 15 feet square, said it had no tub.

SEED SPRINGS

NEW YORK, — (INS) — Wild geranium seed pods contain four strap-shaped springs. The Book of Knowledge Annual says that when the plant is mature, a hair-trigger mechanism releases the springs, throwing out seeds in four directions.

BUBBLES

LONDON, — (INS) — British naval scientists are putting windows in the hulls of warships to watch the bubbles formed by whirling propellers. The Admiralty disclosed that the object of the experiments is to study the effect of the churning water on struts and propellers.

SENATOR RUSSELL IS ONE CANDIDATE WHO IS GOOD COOK

Claims He is "Most Eligible" Man in Senate For Presidency

KEEN HUMOR SENSE

Friends Say He is A More Accomplished History Student Than Truman

Any way you look at it, Sen. Richard Russell (D) of Georgia is an eligible man. Among the leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination next July, he is apt to remark there is not a "more eligible man in the senate for the presidency" than himself. He's less talkative about being an eligible bachelor. This is the fourth article in a series of personal close-ups of presidential candidates.

ARTICLE FOUR
By Inez Robb
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

There are times when Sen. Richard B. Russell (D) Ga., thinks it might be better to marry than to burn constantly over all the old gags and weary jokes eternally tossed his way because he is a bachelor.

He has been especially vulnerable during this year of grace, which is Leap as well as election.

"Are you really the most eligible man in the senate?" a pretty dinner partner asked Russell, the im-

Pastor Says That Moral Degeneracy Has Set In

"The failure of many parents to train their children spiritually has resulted in much delinquency in this generation". So stated Pastor Lehman Strauss at the Parent-Teacher meeting held for the parents and teachers of the beginner department of Calvary Baptist Sunday School on Monday evening.

"The picture of father and mother and children going together to church and occupying the family pew is seldom seen today. The Bible no longer occupies the central place in the home. As a very evident result, moral degeneracy has set into our civilization".

Pastor Strauss continued to point out that the Bibical foundation for the family is: (1) a personal knowledge of God; and (2) training the children in his way of righteousness and saluation.

Following the message demonstrations of the methods used in instructing kindergarten children in Sunday School were given. This included a question-answer clinic. The program was planned and executed by the 12 teachers and officers of the beginner department.

School Playgrounds To Open Here Mon., July 7

Starting several years ago in providing supervised recreation for younger children, the board of directors of the Bristol Borough School District will again sponsor this program on four of the school playgrounds for a period of six weeks.

Commencing Monday, July 7, the play yards will be open at the Bath street school, Wood street school, Jefferson avenue school and the high school for five days each week until August 15.

Each playground will be supervised by one woman and one man, each experienced and interested in the activities of children either as teachers or students at teachers' colleges. Supervised games and craft activities will be part of the daily program along with competitive inter-playground contests.

A number of instructors from last year will again return. However, there are a few openings for persons with at least two years' post high school education.

HONOR OTHER GIRLS

The annual banquet given by the Mothers' Association to the girl athletes of the Bristol High School was held last night in the school cafeteria with over 100 in attendance, including 39 of the athletes, 29 of whom took their mothers as guests.

Highlight of the evening was the awarding of the Mothers' Association Key award to Margaret Adams for participation in two varsity sports for two years. Miss Adams was the only senior who qualified for the award which was presented by Mrs. Stanley Keers, president of the Association.

For three years service on the cheerleading squad, Peggy Baumann, a senior, was presented with a sterling silver megaphone inscribed with a red "B".

Speaker for the occasion was Miss Elizabeth Williams, of Southampton. Miss Williams is a graduate of George School, Newtown, and University of Pennsylvania, Phila., and since September, 1951, has been teaching and coaching at Upper Darby.

During the summer of 1950, Miss Williams toured Europe and Africa as a member of the United States hockey team. She showed color pictures and talked of her travels. This summer Miss Williams plans to go to Helsinki, Finland, to see the Olympics, and also visit Scotland and England.

SABOTAGING THE PORT BILL

Ever since the end of the War, this country has been suffering from what might well be termed "spoiled brat" government.

Rash and intemperate off-the-cuff statements, unprintable letters on White House stationery sent through the mails, captious and unlawful courses of action willfully decided upon, arrogant disregard of orderly processes, sale of favors and auction of patronage, rule by cronies and protection of the crooks—all this has been going on so long, now, that it will seem strange indeed when the time eventually comes that we return to law, order and commonsense.

Perhaps the oddest of all the amazing development is the story of what has happened to the Delaware River Port Authority Program worked out laboriously by the governors and legislatures of the three states of Delaware, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

This plan is on the rocks. It has been stymied, apparently bottled up in a Congressional committee where only dynamite can dislodge it.

By whom? That's the laugh.

By a Budget Bureau which hasn't balanced a budget in twenty years, but which is pulling a dog-in-the-manger act to dictate to the three "sovereign" states just how they shall go about working out their Port Authority plans—and refusing, incidentally, to let them do it the way the Port of New York is functioning.

Only the sheerest technicality put the Budget Bureau in the picture at all. Because of several factors, Congressional approval was necessary to the Port Authority compact before it could be made operative, and, as is customary, the Bill made the circuit of various Federal departments for their comments; the Budget Bureau was included, for the obvious purpose of checking on matters which might affect the Federal budget, of which there are none in the Bill.

Without the slightest semblance of reason or justification the Budget Bureau staged a sit-down strike on the Bill, and refused to approve it without the inclusion of several amendments, none of which have even a faint connection with the Federal Budget.

The amendments would forever cripple the Port Authority Program. They would prevent the Philadelphia area from doing

SOLARIUM, 4 ROOMS, PHILCO "MEMORIAL"

Arrangements Completed For Third Floor Section of Proposed Hospital

JOINT GIFT, $51,505.00

After considerable delay, the public relations committee of The Lower Bucks County Hospital announces that satisfactory arrangements have been completed with Philco Corp. and Philco employees for a memorial in the new hospital suitable to their subscription.

During the fund raising campaign, Philco Corp. pledged a sum of $30,000 to be combined with the Croydon plant employees pledged subscriptions of $21,505 for a joint memorial. At that time the choice of memorial was under the jurisdiction of the professional fund raisers who had already allocated to someone else the units desired by Philco and employees. A temporary choice was then selected pending receipt by the public relations committee of the final approved drawings from the architects.

These drawings have now been

SUGGEST CHANGES IN ZONING PLAN

Township Zoning Commission Holds Second and Final Hearing

DRAFT TENTATIVE ONE

EDGELY, May 15—"The zoning ordinance can and ought to be amended from time to time . . . as the township changes. This can be done on initiative of the zoning commission or through petition of the people."

So Charles P. Cella, Jr., of the Government Consulting Service, University of Pennsylvania, Phila., informed the nearly 75 residents of Bristol township who attended the second hearing conducted on the proposed zoning ordinance for Bristol township, conducted by the zoning commission. Final hearing for this commission took place in Edgely fire station. Further hearings will be conducted by the Bristol township commissioners, with due notification given residents.

The presiding officer, Walter G. Rittler, chairman of the zoning commission, recognized a number of women and men residents of

BRISTOL TOWNSHIP AND TULLYTOWN BOROUGH CREATE AUTHORITY; ACTION REVEALED AT TOWNSHIP COMMISSION MEETING LAST EVENING; LEASE WATER AND SEWER PIPES

Levitt & Sons to Receive Rental for Sewer and Water Plants for 40 Years, Unless Bought by the Authority; Commissioners Are Questioned from The Floor About the Contract.

EDGELY, May 15 — The battle between the Bristol Township Authority and Levitt and Sons Inc. for the rights to sewage and water control is finally over. A compromise settled the issue.

The announcement came at the regular meeting of the Bristol Township Commissioners, last night, as a result of questions stemming from the reading of the minutes of a special meeting held May 13th. An agreement with Levitt and Sons was entered into at that time.

As things now stand, a Lower Bucks County Municipal Authority has been formed with Bristol Township and Tullytown Borough as members. They each have three residents serving on the Authority. This Authority will purchase all water and sewage pipe lines up to the edge of the disposal plant and to the edge of the pumping station and well field, or everything under ground. The sewage plant and water station will remain the property of Levitt and Sons and will be leased to the Authority.

Oscar Booz, commissioner, explained these facts as a result of questions from the floor at the regular meeting, last night. Mrs. Oscar Booz asked the Commissioners if any contract has been entered into with Levitt and Sons concerning sewage and water. Her husband then related the terms of what he said was the contract. The facts as related by Booz's revelations were briefly these:

The rental for the leasing of the sewer and water plants from Levitt have been set at $25,000 for the year April 1, 1952 to March 31, 1953. The second year rental will be $75,000 and the third year $200,000. Every year thereafter for a period of 40 years, unless sold to the Authority before that time, the rental will be an annual charge of $300,000. It was explained that the Authority has been granted the right of first refusal in purchasing the plants. If the Authority feels the price is too high, at any time they can appeal to the right of eminent domain. It was further explained that if the sewage and water rentals that residents pay the Authority do not meet the costs of the Authority, then Levitt and Sons do not receive their rental for the sewer and water plants.

The Authority is set up to serve the Levittown franchise and it has the right to add an additional 500 homes to the systems. To add more than 500 requires the approval of Levitt and Sons. It was announced that The Bristol Township Authority has not been dissolved, as the Lower Bucks County Municipal Authority is not expected to be able to serve the entire township. The rentals that consumers will have to pay were not announced, but the Authority is to be charged $175 per house for line connections.

The Authority will pay for the pipe lines through a bond issue and it was announced that Levitt and Sons have purchased $150,000 worth of bonds and that this money will be used to get the Authority in motion.

Chosen to represent the Authority were the bond attorneys of Morgan, Lewis and Bockius, Leo M. Dolphin Investment Co., and the engineering firm of Glace and Glace.

Oscar Booz stated that there were points won and points lost in the settlement. He added, "If we had not done something soon, everything would have been given to the Levittown Authority. (Tullytown).

Many questions were asked by the taxpayers in attendance and the most important ones were unable to be answered by the Commissioners. The question that evoked "I don't knows" from the Com-

Takes the Topcoat of Pres't Judge by Mistake

DOYLESTOWN, May 15 — The top-coat of President Judge Hiram H. Keller, taken by mistake from a local inn, has been returned following a trip to Ohio.

Says Judge Keller: "I always knew there were some honest people in the world".

On Monday John Cornish, of Meriden, Conn., stopped at Doylestown Inn and inquired of the women at the desk if she knew Hiram H. Keller. "That is our President Judge" was the reply.

"I would take a Judge's coat which is like hitting a policeman's car when you are driving," replied the quick-witted visitor.

President Judge Keller was eating in the restaurant when the Connecticut man and his wife stopped in to have something to eat.

Upon leaving, the Connecticut tourist grabbed a coat and threw it on the backseat of his car. They were enroute to Ohio and when they checked in at a hotel that night they discovered they had the wrong coat.

Cornish, who doesn't believe in "finders keepers" has not been as lucky as Judge Keller because his coat, which he left when he picked up His Honor's by mistake, has not been returned.

BANKERS MEET HERE IN ANNUAL SESSION

Bucks County Group Tours Levittown and Holds Dinner-Meeting

C. JOHNSON, SPEAKER

Bucks County bankers yesterday saw with their own eyes booming Lower Bucks County. Those from other sections of the county marveled as they saw and heard of plans for the area. The visitors attending a dinner-meeting of the Bucks County Bankers Association saw how the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County and The Bristol Trust Company have expanded their facilities and they were told of plans of the two local banking houses to open branches to care for the population increase. All of this brought wondement to those from less populated sections of the county. The picture of fine high-grade farm lands furnishing sites for thousands of houses in Bristol and in Falls townships, and in Tullytown borough was revealed A visit was paid to Levittown.

In the evening the 27th annual meeting and dinner were held in American Legion hall, where officers were elected, reports of committees presented and an eloquent address given by the Hon. Calvin Dean Johnson, former member of Congress from Illinois.

The address of the former congressman was one which sparkled

COURT RESTRAINS LEVITTOWN PICKETS

Temporary Order Issued; Hearing To Be Held Monday

FILE BILL IN EQUITY

DOYLESTOWN, May 15—In the Court of Common Pleas, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, late yesterday afternoon, issued a temporary restraining order preventing mass picketing at Levittown.

The plaintiffs are Levitt and Sons, Inc., and the North Shore Supply Corp. They alleged in the bill of equity that mass picketing was taking place, which resulted in violence and property damage, and further alleged there is no dispute among employees, that there is no strike on but that the Union is endeavoring to intimidate non-union workers and that there are assaults, disturbances and violence, which consists of stoning automobiles, cutting tires, throwing glass in the roadways and blocking entrances to Levittown.

The plaintiff presented a long list of affidavits made by various parties, charged the defendant with mass picketing, inflicting violence, damaging property, threatening personal employees, using force and stoning cars.

Isaac J. VanArtsdalen, county solicitor, associated with three attorney for the plaintiff, said police could no longer cope with the situation.

The defendants are: laborers, local union No. 57; journeyman plumbers and gas fitters, local union No. 690; United Association

RAISING GOOD DRIVERS

It's a trite saying that young drivers are "a big expense to put on the road in a car." In the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx of New York City, where casualty insurance rates are the highest in the nation, some insurance companies say they are going broke along with parents.

Four companies now refuse to write policies for those areas, where the present cost of the basic policy—bodily injury and property damage—is $115. When there is a driver under 25 the rate jumps to $210. And the underwriters are talking about a 20 per cent increase in New York on June 1. Varying increases may be ordered in other parts of the country.

What are the reasons for this shocking burden on all who own cars? Inflation. The high cost of settling claims. High cost of auto parts. The log-jams of cars on outgrown roads. And of course the bad record of young drivers compared with those of mature years.

Most drivers start driving young, and all drivers of the future will have been young once, and youth is the time for education—so what can be more vital than a focusing on young people for possible relief? Driver-training in school may provide the basic instruction.

But for the youthful to be careful drivers in fact is something that rests on the responsibility they feel, the good manners they practice wherever they go and whatever they do—the way they were raised.

Home is still the place for safety on the road to find its surest, most essential support.

A PROPHET WITH HONOR

One of the very great men of American agriculture obtained his start in a simple way. More than 50 years ago a boy named Hugh H. Bennett was growing up on his father's farm beside the Peedee River in North Carolina. After heavy rains water of the Peedee was colored chocolate brown by topsoil washed off the farms of the Piedmont region. Young Bennett didn't like that. To him it seemed a horrible waste.

The other day, at 71, Dr. Bennett retired as head of the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. His life has been devoted to an ideal—the preservation of the soil and water upon which the people and the nation depend.

Years ago Dr. Bennett estimated that improper use of the soil was resulting in the loss of 500,000 acres of cropland annually. Great acreages are still being lost. But the pendulum has swung. Never again, it is safe to prophesy, will Americans idly watch the good earth mined and eroded to desert-like sterility.

Dr. Hugh Bennett was often discouraged but he never gave up. Millions of American acres now are under good soil management largely because he has lived and worked.

received and the memorial for Philco and employees has been selected. The third floor solarium or lobby and a sequence of four rooms, each having two beds, immediately off the lobby, Nos. 305, 306, 307, 308 and 309 are their choice.

When selecting the memorial units, along with the employees, Daumant Kasma, plant manager, again confirmed the company's pledged amount and stated, "We at Philco are well aware that within the last decade and a half the use of hospitals has doubled. This remarkable trend corresponds to the discovery of new techniques of diagnosis and treatment, calling for complex apparatus and skilled personnel. It is reflected in the increased coverage of employee groups by hospital insurance plans. Hospitals are becoming larger and more costly to build. We know that the new load placed upon hospitals in recent years represents in a measure the demands of the insured and hospital - conscious employees for care. We are therefore very pleased to join with our employees and all others in affirmative participation to bring about the erection of a community hospital within our immediate area. We should also like at this time to recognize those few, without whose efforts at the time so necessary in the beginning, we would not now be able to look forward to the early erection of this worthy project."

Hospital President James E. Harris expressed appreciation for the organization as follows: "Philco's contribution to our hospital fund is of special interest to me personally, because I am a member of another local service group that annually receives support from this concern. The job of president has been made easier as has our entire movement because of such splendid support as this from Philco and their employees."

with bits of humor, interspersed with sound logic and 100 percent Americanism. The speaker had an eloquent flow of language and a way of presenting his topic "Land Where Our Fathers Died" which held his audience spellbound.

C. Donald Moyer, treasurer of The Bristol Trust Company which was the host bank and retiring president of the Association, delivered the president's address. Mr. Moyer called attention to the development of Lower Bucks County and how the banks in the section are being and will be called upon to render greatly increased services. He said that not only will the banks of the section prosper by the influx of the industrial activity but that the banks in the center and upper reaches of the county will also prosper. He urged that all banks be prepared to render the services which will be requested.

The invocation was by the Rev. Rowland L. Carlson, pastor of the Harriman Methodist Church.

Harold E. Hanson, chairman of the nominating committee, placed before the meeting the nominations for officers to be elected for the ensuing year. The nominees were without opposition and they were elected as follows:

President of Association — T. Wells Knipe, cashier, 1st National, Perkasie; vice president — Robert B. Hance, Jr., Sec'y-Treas., Newtown Title and Trust Co., Newtown; Secretary — Elmer C. Cates, Trust Officer, Doylestown Trust Company, Doylestown; Treasurer — R. W. Krueger, Cashier, Merchants National, Quakertown.

Executive Committee: C. Donald Moyer, Bristol Trust; Claude C. Wolfinger, 1st National of Riegelsville; Herman L. Margeum, Jr., The Morrisville Bank; Joseph C. Maschke, The Sellersville National Bank; Brinton H. Hogeland, 1st National Bank and Trust Co., Newtown.

The nominating committee consisted of Harold E. Hanson, chairman, Bristol Trust Co.; Brinton H. Hogeland, 1st Nat'l, Newtown; David L. Weamer, Quakertown Trust.

Mr. Johnson, the main speaker of the evening, in his opening remark extended congratulations to the bankers upon being located in the area into which the steel industry has moved. He said that America had always been the land of opportunity where it had been the rule that sweat was the cure for all economic ills and where Free Enterprise had reigned. "Every man is supposed to prosper according to his own talents and I have had confidence in America," he said. He stated that America has six percent of the world's population, seven percent of the world's area and owns 45 percent of the world's wealth. He urged that the citizens of America become aroused and awaken to a realization that if America is to be preserved that they must do their duty as citizens and vote. He gave the figures that at the last election out of 94 million people eligible to vote, only 48 million had cast ballots. "Our American heritage is rapidly slipping away from us," he cautioned.

"You may ask 'what good will my one vote do?'" His answer to this was to read a list of presidents chosen by one electoral vote. He said that with a strong president and a weak Congress, America could soon slip into a dictatorship. He gave the anticipated deficit this year as being 15 billion when speaking of the reckless spending and extravagance of the Government.

Mr. Johnson gave it as his opinion that we are not going to have a war. His reason given was that through the system of Free Enterprise that America can out-produce the world, by calling upon the industrial giants created by private capital. He said that Lenin had said that the way to destroy Democracy was to make Democracy spend itself into bankruptcy. He spoke in favor of military aid for Europe, but advocated that the guns, the tanks, and planes and the ammunitation be made in this country. "One hundred and twenty-seven billion was the figure he gave as having been spent by America for foreign aid since 1940.

Communism he compared to cancer and described how it eats from within until it destroys. The first step toward Communism said the speaker is the welfare state, then Socialism as in England and then Communism.

"We must take an active interest in government and protect the American heritage." He referred to the pinks on government payrolls getting from $8,000 to $10,000 annually while our boys are dying in Korea.

Those at the head table were: Joseph R. Grundy, chairman of the board, Farmers National Bank of Bucks County; Clyde J. Waterman, president of The Bristol Trust Company; L. Merle Campbell, state secretary of banking; William J. Begley, Esq., trust officer, Bristol Trust Company; Christian H. Brandt, state deputy secretary of banking; W. J. McCuen, state chief bank examiner; Edward Aff, assistant cashier Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia; DeHaven Develin, president Montgomery County Bankers Association; Rev. Roland L. Carlson, pastor of Harriman Methodist church; John P. Mohr, president Lehigh County Bankers Association; Harris Vennema, editor, Pennsylvania Banker; Elmer C. Cates, secretary Bucks County Banker's Association; T. Wells Knipe, who was elected president of the Association.

COMMUNICATION

Editor, Courier:

On April 30, 1952, I was requested to help the Bensalem Tax Payers Association "to get support from the people in the Upper District for the changing of Bensalem Township from second class to first class. I know anything first class has much more appeal than something second class and I also know the tax payers can get a big bill handed to them if the two party system in politics don't go along with this move hand-in-hand. The most effective way I can explain is this. Why does anyone group of political office holders in the majority want to dispense the tax payers money without some representation from the minority party. I believe the reason is obvious. I must take a position in this matter, therefore I gave the following statement April 30, 1952:

"To the tax payers Association Bensalem Township, Bucks County, Pa., I will go all the way for "First Class Township" If it is for all the people. Therefore make public the names of the five commissioners that are going to be recommended to the court for appointment for the first year until elected by the people and then the people will know just where they stand, otherwise I will work against such a plan that is a "pig in a poke".

missioners was: "Why didn't the agreement specify that the sewage and water plants would be sold to the Authority at the end of five years or when the last house is built in Levittown?"

Alfred Smith, a member of the Bristol Township School Authority, stated "I think Levitt expects to locate in Lower Bucks County and will not want to sell the facilities."

Mrs. Booz stated, "Bristol Township is taking what it can get, not what it is entitled to."

Commissioner Fred Hibbs said, "We had some very good legal talent working for us and they all told us that this was the best that we could get."

According to legal notices appearing elsewhere in the Courier today, the Board of Commissioners of Bristol Township had a special meeting May 13th, and enacted an ordinance signifying the intention of the municipal authorities of that township to organize an authority under the Municipal Authorities act of 1945, jointly with the Borough of Tullytown.

Tullytown Borough Council had a special meeting on the same date and enacted an ordinance signifying the intention of the municipal authorities of that borough to organize an authority under the Municipal Authorities act of 1945, jointly with the township of Bristol.

The authority is to be known as the Lower Bucks County Joint Municipal Authority.

The board of authority is to consist of six members, three of whom shall be citizens of each district. The term of each member is to commence on the date of his appointment: one expiring Jan. 1, 1954; one on Jan. 1 ,1955; one Jan. 1, 1956; one Jan. 1, 1957 and two on Jan. 1, 1958.

The names of those appointed and their terms are as follows: William Leigh, Tullytown, one year; C. Donald Moyer, Bristol Township, two years; William Johnston, Sr., Croydon, 3 years; Florence L. Conca; Tullytown, four years; Arthur Seyfert, Bristol Township, five years; Charles Lucisano, Tullytown, five years.

According to the ordinance sets forth that the first projects to be undertaken are the acquiring, holding, constructing, improving, maintaining and operating, owning, leasing, either in the capacity of lessor or lessee, of sewers, sewer systems or parts thereof, sewage treatment works, including works for treatment and disposal of industrial waste, water works, water supply works and water distribution systems in the Township of Bristol and the Borough of Tullytown or parts thereof and for such other territory as it may be authorized to serve.

Bloomers were introduced at Lowell, Mass., in 1851.

Suggest Changes In Zoning Plan

Bristol township, representatives of manufacturing firms, and attorneys for builders contemplating construction in the township. Other members of the zoning commission present were Mrs. Reba Goebig and Harry Smith; and representing the Government Consulting Service, in addition to Mr. Cella, was M. Webb.

The session was two hours in length, and a number of those interested in specific changes asked for the floor on several occasions.

At the outset, Cella reminded that the draft is a tentative one, and that "suggestions and changes will be given favorable consideration. This is your ordinance, and we want every one to be satisfied."

Representatives of various firms presented their suggested changes in writing, some augmenting such with verbal information. The maps and the drafts of the proposed ordinance were frequently consulted by the gathering as specific sections of the township and their designated listings came up for consideration.

Dr. S. C. Kelton, representing Rohm & Haas Company, emphasized to the commission and the other township residents that his firm "is strongly in favor of township planning and zoning." He added: "We feel that your commission has done an excellent job in preparing this preliminary draft, and we are in favor of its adoption subject to the minor changes which will undoubtedly be submitted to you by other property owners in the territory, and subject also to a few minor changes which we wish to propose for your consideration."

Among the changes suggested by Rohm & Haas Co., through Dr. Kelton were: Change in classification from M-1 to M-2 of small tract adjacent to the Penna. Railroad, and west of where the road from Bristol - Burlington bridge meets Route 13; change in requirement for industrial establishments from one parking space for each four employees to one space for each four employees employed in any one shift; possible inclusion in Section 301 covering R-1 districts that land in such districts may be used for a "lake or reservoir for water supply, or non-commercial recreation purposes;" amendment of height regulations applicable to M-1 and M-2 areas so as to have the height limitation correlated with the distance of the building or structure from the street or property line on the land on which it may be erected; change in Article II., Sec. 901, Pg. 6, so that clause would read "Fertilizer, when manufactured from animal or vegetable refuse or materials" (the present phrase prohibits manufacture of fertilizer when manufactured from organic materials); suggestion that the commission consider broadening provisions of Pg. 2 of Sec. 1000 regarding extension of non-conforming use of building or land.

A number of residents from Maryland avenue section of Croydon had as their spokesman Mrs. Evelyn Lawton. Mrs. Lawton pointed out that "Most are new homes on Maryland avenue, and while we are in an R-3 zone we don't want manufacturing plants in our back yards." She referred to plan for M-1 district a short distance back of Maryland avenue. She asked that the R-3 district be extended for protection of the residents, and submitted a petition with 124 signatures attached. The desire was that the R-3 district be extended over Cedar avenue and to River road and Rohm & Haas Co. tract. Mr. Cella reminded that "some districts are highly tentative. We wanted to find out what the people desire."

Howard Loeffler, College Park, called attention to the fact that that area which has been and is of a residential nature, is tentatively listed for manufacturing under M-2. "I am in a bad position—between two fires." He asked that an application which he presented be placed on file. Another township man who finds himself "in the middle of M-2 district," Minot avenue, below River road, was John Tullibach. He told the board: "I work in Philadelphia all day. I have lived in Croydon 25 years, and bought a house 13 months ago. Now I find the area classed as industrial. I am very much opposed to M-2 classification. Let's keep it residential. Take the industries out to the farms. The farmers are willing to sell."

Representing Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co., John P. Fullam, Esq., informed that that firm (in areas listed for M-1, M-2 and R-3) "is making a detailed study of the proposed ordinance, and asks leave to submit recommendations later. It will be in your hands within a few days."

When query was made by some in regard to advance announcement of hearings by the township commissioners, Mr. Cella stated: "All who have anything at stake should come to the third meeting. It's good just to keep with the thing. But remember, we've got to think in terms of the ultimate lot of the township."

H. L. Thomas represented the Sporrr Corporation. He stated that firm has option on property on Green Lane, contemplating construction of two-story, row-type houses (one and two-family type), and will shortly make detailed presentation to the commission. Cella questioned Thomas regarding the plans for sewage disposal and water supply, and was informed that those things were being given consideration. Cella also reminded that row houses "are not allowed anywhere in the township." It was pointed out that such are also subject to the county sub-division regulations.

One spokesman asked that State road, also Cedar avenue, be continued as commercial areas, "thus allowing businesses on the two thoroughfares and bringing more money to Croydon."

I. W. Cross, Newportville, informed the board that with the planned Penna. Turnpike extension going through that area a good part of his property is being taken for such. His query was as to whether he could expand in any other manner, and was informed that he may purchase contiguous land.

Request was made by Alfred Vandegrift that the triangular piece of ground at Green Lane and Farragut avenue be changed from R-2 to commercial.

There were a number of questions regarding the "spotting" of manufacturing districts along the Neshaminy Creek and Delaware river. Cella enlightened by telling how the thought was "in terms of a belt of heavy industrial areas." . . . "Plans are in tentative form for a manufacturing strip where land is not yet developed." He assured further study of these cases.

Kenneth Anderson presented to the commission a list of detailed recommendations regarding signs.

"I know how difficult it is to please all the people all of the time," commented James Harris when he took the floor. He called attention to sections along State road marked on the map by three "C's" for commercial, with a break of one R-3 district in the area. "We should have had zoning 20 years ago, and this particular problem would not be with us," he stated. "I believe the future will find State road commercial as the various places are converted." This forecast was, he said, for the next 10 or 15 years, "because State road is an artery." He added, however, that parking spaces are necessary before the "commercial" part comes to pass. "We are trying to correct a haphazard situation."

A number from the College Park area expressed feeling that that district should be made residential instead of M-2. Mrs. Ernest Leah told of the recent clearing of a beach area in that district, and other improvements.

Another point brought out by Cella was that "We have tried to arrange for commercial convenience centers, as well as for major ones."

When the subject of township taxes was mentioned briefly, Mr. Harris reminded: "We must have a broad view. Industry is necessary to bring the tax rate down. That is only good, common business sense. The tax rate would go up by reason of having all dwellings and no industries. It is a blessing we have industrial plants paying 20 per cent of our taxes."

When the question arose regarding deed restrictions, Mr. Cella informed that such deeds must be complied with, and that where there is a difference in requirements (deed or ordinance) "the tougher requirement applies."

When the matter of land donated by Rohm & Haas Co. to Bristol township school district was brought up, Dr. Kelton informed that when and if such acreage ceases to be used for school or recreational purposes the larger portion of the tract is to revert to the company.

Hits were plentiful last evening as the Auto Boys nine won its first game of the Bristol Softball League beating the Minnesota Mining contingent, 8-6, on Conti's field.

BENSALEM WINS OVER NESHAMINY BY SCORE OF 4 TO 3

LANGHORNE, May 15 — A home run by Joe Mikelaitis played a prominent part in Bensalem Township's 4-3 eight inning victory over Neshaminy High yesterday afternoon on Playwicki field.

It was the fifth straight win for the Owls and sixth of the Lower Bucks County League, lifting them into first place. It was also Bob Whitfield's fifth mound triumph against one defeat.

The blow by Mikelaitis came in the fourth canto. Russ Struble had walked and Crowthers hit safely to center. Then came Mikelaitis' blow against the fence in right.

The four-bagger gave Bensalem a 3-2 lead at the time but Neshaminy tied it in the last part of the seventh with a run on some daring base-running by Nick Grudza. Grudza walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball, and then deadlocked the count with a steal of home.

Joe LaPenta who relieved Tony Peale in the eighth was the losing pitcher but a victim of fate. He got Harvey Crowthers on a fly and then struck out Mikelaitis. He also fanned Whitfield but the ball was trapped by the catcher. Russ Struble, coaching at first, yelled for Whitfield to run which he did and made it safely as most of the Neshaminy team was off the field. Umpire Henry Morgan called Whitfield safe and play resumed. Whitfield stole second. Al Wachtendorf's throw went to center and took a bounce over the centerfielder's head, permitting Whitfield to cross with what was the winning run.

Whitfield allowed Neshaminy three hits while Bensalem made four off Peale. It did not get a hit off LaPenta, the losing twirler.

Harvey Crowthers played a nice defensive game for the winners.

CAPELLA TOO MUCH FOR KAISER TEAM

Slow tantalizing pitches by Tony Cappella proved too much for the Kaiser Metal team last evening as Franklin A. C. broke into the win column of the Bristol Softball League with a 4-1 win over the automobile workers.

Cappella permitted the Kaiser team but four scattered hits, two of these a double by C. Chichiletti and single by Frank Barbetta, provided the losers with their lone tally in the fifth.

Included in the eight hits made by the Franklin team was the second home run in as many nights by Dezzy DeLise. DeLise also made another hit to give him four out of six in the two games played.

Franklin copped the game by scoring three runs in the sixth by bunching four of their hits off Charlie Uhland. One was away when DeLise singled off Uhland's glove. Centonze was the second out. After DeLise stole second, Toby Oriola lined out a hit to left to score him. Oriola went to second on the throw-in. Fred Fields hit safely to center, scoring Oriola. Paul Paolillo scored Fields with a two-bagger to center.

George School

NEWTOWN, May 15 — Parents and other guests from California, Connecticut, Louisiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia, totalling 163, looked over George School, Saturday, took box lunches with their children, shared in a panel discussion on school social life, and watched varsity teams in five sports score four wins and one loss on spring parents day.

On the athletic fields, Coach Jamison's girls kept alive their undefeated streak, scoring their third 1952 win on the tennis courts, 4-2, over Westtown School. The lacrosse players of Coach Eleanor Hess earned a 4-3 win over Westtown. Finally in girls' sports, Westtown defeated the archery team of Coach Bea Tempest. In baseball, Coach Edward Thode's team won its sixth game in 10 starts as pitcher "Bill" Bieber of Douglassville held Admiral Farragut Academy to two hits while fanning eight as his mates, sparked by a home run from the bat of Pete New, Santa Fe, N. M., collected seven runs to win 7-2. In Pennsburg the netmen of Coach Jim Seegers had to contend with rain, but got before winning seven of the nine scheduled matches for victory over Perkiomen.

In other George School developments this week it was announced that, from the many poster designs submitted in a contest being run by Friends General Conference, the design of Ann Talbot, Newtown, had been selected for first honors.

The art work of three other George School students was chosen for exhibition at the Tyler School of Fine Arts of Temple University (Phila.) show held from April 26 to May 10, along with the prize work of other Philadelphia area students. Those from George School whose work was exhibited in the Tyler "Young America Creates" show were: Edward Abbott, Jr., Woodbury, N. J.; Philip Grausman, New York, N. Y.; and Gail Johnson, Morrisville.

Neshaminy District

LANGHORNE, May 15—The baccalaureate service for the members of the graduating class of the Neshaminy high school will be held in Friends Meeting House on June 1st at 7.30 p. m.

The speaker will be James Walker, former headmaster, Westtown School.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Delhaas High School

On May 16, under sponsorship of student council with "Betty" Jane Taylor as chairman, Delhaas high school will hold its first award day in its open-air auditorium. The awards include a trophy, presented by 10-H-9 to the tenth grade softball champs; letters, awarded after a student has earned 30 points in activities; and to those pupils participating in school activities and not receiving a letter, certificates.

The festivities will start at 1.20 with 10th graders watching a softball game between 10-H-9 and 10-H-10. At 2.50, Thomas Jenkins will conduct presentations before the whole student body.

DIPHTHERIA DOWN

LONDON, (INS) — Diphtheria — the most deadly child-killer known to Britain — is nearing extinction. Official figures released by the Ministry of Health show that 32 people died in 1951 compared with 49 in 1950, while cases reported were 699 against 959.

NEW WRINKLE

WILMINGTON, Del., — (INS) — A "new wrinkle" for women who have trouble moistening clothes for ironing is a cellulose sponge developed by DuPont Company. One of these artifical sponges, the firm says, gives quicker results because it holds 20 times its own weight in water. These sponges also, it was claimed, can be pressed against the fabric to be ironed, or can be used to sprinkle clothes.

GAS SAVERS

TOLEDO, O.—(INS) — The male motorist could jingle more nickels, dimes, and quarters in his pocket if he drove like the much-maligned "woman driver." Women drivers get more miles out of a gallon of gasoline because they drive slower than men do, according to Dean A. Walters, technical service director of Willys-Overland Motors, Inc.

Senator Russell Is One Candidate Who is Good Cook

peccable southern gentleman, a few months ago.

"Yes, ma'am," said Russell politely, "there's not a more eligible man in the senate for the presidency."

Yet the Senator would certainly make some woman a good husband: He is a first-rate cook, who specializes in Southern cuisine. His baking powder biscuits are tone poems and his southern fried chicken dreamy.

The Senator has never been afraid of a controversial issue, even to the point of challenging the senate dining room's most famous dish, its bean soup, a favorite of gourmets the world around.

"I think my bean soup is better," is his uncompromising verdict.

The Georgia Senator occupies a house-keeping apartment in Washington's Mayflower hotel. He rises at 7 a.m. and plugs in the coffee pot with one hand while reaching for his safety razor with the other.

Breakfast is no scratch affair. Russell is a grits-and-gravy man, fortified by Georgia cured ham. Like as not he'll cook his own dinner in the evening, and often invites a few friends in to share his specialty, broiled steaks.

He absorbed his cooking techniques from his gifted mother, Mrs. Ina Russell of Winder, Ga., with whom he lives when he is not in Washington or campaigning for the presidency. Russell is the third of thirteen children of Mrs. Russell and the late Richard Russell, chief justice of the Georgia Supreme Court.

Judge Russell lived long enough to administer the oath of office to his son when Sen. Russell was elected governor of Georgia at the age of 34, the youngest governor in the state's history.

When he was elected to the U. S. Senate three years later in 1933, he was the youngest man in that citadel of elder statesmen. At that time, a large banquet was given in honor of Russell by Georgia Democrats. When Russell was introduced, the assembly rose with the exception of an elderly woman.

"Don't you believe in rising for this distinguished son of Georgia?" hissed the indignant person seated next to her.

"No, I don't," was the first reply. "I got up too much for him when he was a baby. I'm his mother."

Socially and personally, Sen. Russell is one of the best liked men in Washington with Republicans and Democrats alike. Both Republicans and Democrats praised him for his fairness a year ago when he acted as presiding officer at one of the most delicate and difficult hearings in the capital, that occasioned by the recall of Gen. MacArthur.

He has a delightful sense of humor and even his colleague and rival, Sen. Estes Kefauver, could laugh when Russell, discussing Kefauver's talented red-headed wife Nancy, said "Kefauver's chief accomplishment is that he outmarried himself!"

In a capital that often resembles a sea of infuriated men, Russell is noted as an instinctive politician who is never bitter, frustrated or angry.

If he felt frustrated when Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, the original chosen presidential instrument of President Truman, said he would not seek the Democratic presidential nomination, the Georgia Senator concealed his feelings. For his intimates say that Sen. Russell up to that point had high hope he would be chosen as Stevenson's running mate.

"This was his real ambition," says one of Russell's close friends. "Now he is running on his own. If he doesn't make the grade at the national convention, he will at least be in a strong bargaining position."

Russell is conscientious in his attendance at the Senate and conscientious in his study of all major legislation. He is at his office at 8 a.m. regularly when in Washington. By that hour, he has breakfasted and read the newspapers and is ready to tackle his mail.

He dictates so rapidly for the next two hours that from three to five stenographers take dictation in succession. He spends his day between committee meetings and the Senate floor. He is chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee and chairman of the Senate Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee. Russell is an expert in both fields.

His favorite pastime is the reading of history. His friends are certain that he is an even more accomplished student of history than President Truman. Detective fiction, in which so many busy men find relaxation, bores him.

Sen. Russell enjoys a good game of bridge, but does not often find time to play. He goes to a semi-occasional movie. He likes music. He plays neither golf nor canasta.

Russell is one of the most effective speakers in the Senate. He is a tireless campaigner and an accomplished hand-shaker.

"And if necessary, he can kiss babies, if the babies don't object," one of his staff says.

It was the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, then governor of New York, who told youthful Russell in 1931 that "the governor of Georgia has the prerogative of kissing every pretty girl he sees."

When Russell looked doubtful, Roosevelt told him the edict had been issued by Gen. John B. Gordon when he was the governor of Georgia, "and it's high time you know it."

After World War II, Russell, with a straight face, proposed that Great Britain be admitted to the United States and that Winston Churchill and the late King George VI, be allowed to run for the Senate.

Russell has traveled all over the world on Senate business. During the early days of World War II, on a tour of war areas, he dined in China with Generalissimo and Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek. He looked nervously at the chopsticks, but relaxed when Mme. Chiang, who attended preparatory school in Georgia, served him southern fried chicken.

(Tomorrow: Sen. Kefauver)

ROYAL COCKTAILS

LONDON, (INS) — The Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II is not due until 1953 but Britain's bartenders already are dreaming up the "perfect" Coronation Cocktail. Bill Tarling, president of the United Kingdom Bartenders Guild, said there will be "hundreds of different Coronation Cocktails" to tickle the palates of all who visit London to see the splendid pageantry of a Coronation year.

A major manufacturer introduces a one-unit "electrical" sink — automatic dishwasher under porcelain enameled sink and drainboard with internal plumbing. Sink is 48 inches wide, 25 inches deep and 36 inches high, with swing-type faucet assembly. Dishwasher opens from front, loads from top.

PEN FORCE

ALBUQUERQUE, (INS) — New Mexico University history student William Fortune's essay on "The Use of Force in Modern Society" so pleased Magistrate Findley Morrow that the judge suspended all but $10 of a $50 fine he levied against Fortune for being involved in a fight.

Sabotaging The Port Bill

what the New York area has been doing with much success—that is, use revenue-producing projects such as toll bridges to finance non-revenue-producing improvements to the Port.

Now, it may be accepted as a truism that almost any other president who ever occupied the White House would rap his Budget Bureau's fingers smartly for trying to dictate policies concerning the states and the Congress, policies having no conceivable relationship with the Budget Department's own business—which business, we may say, has been flagrantly mishandled for two decades.

But not President Truman. He has shown no interest in helping solve the impasse, and apparently is quite willing for the Port Authority program, fruit of many years hard work in three states, to be sabotaged by his fiscal assistants.

To the friends of the Port Authority we can offer little comfort in this distressing situation, and in fact, can offer nothing but a word of advice.

That advice is this, to pitch in at once and help solve ninety per cent of the troubles of this type which are plaguing the nation more and more with the passage of time.

There is just one way the demoralization and destructive confusion can be wiped out, and that is by replacing the New Deal and its discredited chieftain with someone who is sufficiently courageous and able to run this country the way it should be run, who has the experience and the technical know-how which are called for, and who is dedicated to constitutionalism and common-sense.

The outstanding American who qualifies for that description is Senator Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, the nation's well-known "Mr. Republican."

FIRST BATHROOM

NEW YORK, — (INS) — The first known clay tile bathroom was built around 3000 B. C. for King Urinmar, Babylonian monarch. Archeologists who discovered the room measuring 15 feet square, said it had no tub.

SEED SPRINGS

NEW YORK, — (INS) — Wild geranium seed pods contain four strap-shaped springs. The Book of Knowledge Annual says that when the plant is mature, a hair-trigger mechanism releases the springs, throwing out seeds in four directions.

BUBBLES

LONDON, — (INS) — British naval scientists are putting windows in the hulls of warships to watch the bubbles formed by whirling propellers. The Admiralty disclosed that the object of the experiments is to study the effect of the churning water on struts and propellers.

Because of the stigma and fear associated with the word leprosy, this ancient disease is now called by many medical authorities Hansen's Disease.
